Funding Guidelines

The Fund normally makes grants to organizations in the United States which have tax-exempt status under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (and are not private foundations within the meaning of section 107(c)(1) of the code), and to state colleges and universities. The Fund will also consider grant requests from organizations based outside the United States if they have documented equivalent 501(c)(3) status. The Fund does not make grants to individuals.

Due to its narrow funding focus, the Fund makes grants by invitation only. After familiarizing yourself with the Fund's program areas and guidelines, if you feel that your project falls within this focus, you may submit a brief letter of inquiry (1-2 pages) which succinctly summarizes the purpose and activities of the grant, the qualifications of the applicant and institution, and an estimated total budget cost and time frame for the project. The letter will initially be reviewed initially by members of the Fund's staff and possibly by outside consultants. Those submitting letters will be notified of the results of this review in approximately six weeks and may be asked to supply additional information for a formal proposal.

City Life

COPY

For the past decade, the City Life Program has worked with organizations across the five boroughs of New York City to expand and improve the public realm. Focused on parks & streets, the Fund supported public access to well-maintained green spaces and the waterfront, the creation of new parkland, advocacy for better transit, more biking and pedestrian zones, and civic engagement on issues affecting all aspects of public space.

City Life is on hiatus until further notice.

Environment

COPY

The Fund's Environment Program has focused on High Seas Protection, Ocean Livability, and Marine Protected Areas. The Fund, in collaboration with other partners, helped form the High Seas Alliance, the largest marine conservation group in the world. Other initiatives have supported efforts to: fight environmental havoc caused by overfishing and greenhouse gas emissions in the Pacific Islands; strengthen and safeguard the compliance of marine protected areas in the Sargasso Sea, Costa Rican Dome, and the Ross Sea in Antarctica; and promote the inclusion of marine sites on the World Heritage List. In the Arctic, the Fund has supported efforts for comprehensive regulations governing maritime transport as well as investing in human capital by helping educate and train young natives about marine biodiversity in the arctic.

The Environment Program is on hiatus for 2013.

Historic Preservation

COPY

The Historic Preservation Program concentrates on the conservation of archaeological resources in the Circum-Mediterranean, with a focus in Turkey, and the preservation of U.S. industrial heritage. The Program's Turkish Site Conservation and Training Initiatives support projects that conserve in situ archaeological resources and conservation training for Turkish nationals. Through the Industrial Heritage Initiative, the Fund supports efforts to shape and influence the protection and reuse of former industrial sites including mines, power plants, grain elevators, and steel plants.

Migrations

COPY

The Fund's Migration program supports a variety of efforts to integrate the 40 million foreign born individuals who call the United States home so they can thrive and contribute fully to the country's civic, cultural and economic life. We currently fund high-impact, innovative solutions to the integration challenges facing immigrants and refugees today in a few areas: how to engage receiving community members so they embrace the immigrants and refugees living in their communities; how to address the labor market challenges facing foreigners educated and trained abroad who are underemployed in the US; and how to ensure that Dream-Act eligible youth succeed in achieving their educational and professional goals. We are also proud sponsors of the Migration Policy Institute's E Pluribus Unum prizes for exceptional immigrant integration initiatives.

FURTHERMORE grants
in publishing

The Furthermore program is concerned with nonfiction book publishing about the city; natural and historic resources; art, architecture, and design; cultural history; and civil liberties and other public issues of the day. Our grants apply to writing, research, editing, design, indexing, photography, illustration, and printing and binding.

We look for work that appeals to an informed general audience; gives evidence of high standards in editing, design, and production; promises a reasonable shelf life; might not otherwise achieve top quality or even come into being; and represents a contribution without which we would be the poorer. Book proposals to which a university press or trade publisher is already committed and for which there is a feasible distribution plan are usually preferred. In geographical reach we are drawn—but in no way limited—to New York City and to New York State and its Hudson Valley.

Furthermore applicants must be 501(c)3 organizations. They have included civic and academic institutions, museums, independent and university presses, and professional societies. Trade publishers and public agencies may apply for Furthermore grants in partnership with an eligible nonprofit project sponsor.

Applications* from individuals cannot be accepted. Grants from $500 to roughly $15,000 are awarded in spring and fall with March 1 and September 1 deadlines. We welcome enquiries.

Discretionary Grants

COPY

The Fund also awards discretionary grants to organizations identified by individual trustees based on their own interests and research. These discretionary grants support a wide variety of activities, including:

- art, architecture, publishing and design;
- academic institutions;
- conservation of land and buildings;
- policy analysis and discussion of civic issues; and
- human rights and social justice.

Discretionary grant proposals are by invitation only. Kindly do not submit an on-line Letter of Intent.

Most brokers issue their own substitute statement instead of using Form 1099-B. They also may provide basis information (usually your cost) to you on the statement even if it is not reported to the IRS. Before you check Box A, B, or C below, determine whether you received any statement(s) and, if so, the transactions for which basis was reported to the IRS. Brokers are required to report basis to the IRS for most stock you bought in 2011 or later.

Part II Long-Term. Transactions involving capital assets you held more than one year are long-term. For short-term transactions, see page 1.

You must check Box A, B, or C below. Check only one box. If more than one box applies for your long-term transactions, complete a separate Form 8849, page 2, for each applicable box. If you have more long-term transactions than will fit on this page for one or more of the boxes, complete as many forms with the same box checked as you need.

- (A) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was reported to the IRS
- (B) Long-term transactions reported on Form(s) 1099-B showing basis was not reported to the IRS
- (C) Long-term transactions not reported to you on Form 1099-B

3	(a) Description of property (Example: 100 sh. XYZ Co.)	(b) Date acquired (Mo., day, yr.)	(c) Date sold or disposed (Mo., day, yr.)	(d) Proceeds (sales price) (see instructions)	(e) Cost or other basis. See the Note below and see Column (e) in the separate instructions	Adjustment, if any, to gain or loss. If you enter an amount in column (g), enter a code in column (f). See the separate instructions.		(h) Gain or (loss). Subtract column (e) from column (d) and combine the result with column (g)
						(f) Code(s) from instructions	(g) Amount of adjustment
	SEE SCHEULE ATTACHED							149,335.
4	Totals. Add the amounts in columns (d), (e), (g), and (h) (subtract negative amounts). Enter each total here and include on your Schedule D, line 8 (if Box A above is checked), line 9 (if Box B above is checked), or line 10 (if Box C above is checked).								149,335.

Note. If you checked Box A above but the basis reported to the IRS was incorrect, enter in column (e) the basis as reported to the IRS, and enter an adjustment in column (g) to correct the basis. See Column (g) in the separate instructions for how to figure the amount of the adjustment.
